and went to the pen. Now he was given preferential treatment throughout, but when he got out he wants to change his name. Now he said he wants to change his name so that he can start a new life. Do you think in this new life he will not commit acts of pedophilia?

SENATOR BAKER: I couldn't make a judgment on that, Senator Chambers. I don't know.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If he was not a priest, could you make a judgment?

SENATOR BAKER: No, I couldn't.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Why do we make these people register then if we cannot make a judgment about what they're likely to do?

SENATOR BAKER: Well, it's not a...in that case, it wouldn't be a lifetime registration requirement, I don't believe.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, they have to register for ten years.

SENATOR BAKER: That's correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But you can't make a judgment about this priest?

SENATOR BAKER: I...I couldn't. No, I think maybe law enforcement could, and that would be...it would...should depend on what judgment they made, whether he was a Class 1, 2 or 3 offender.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think he should be allowed to change his name?

SENATOR BAKER: Well, that's up to him.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think there ought to be something in the law which would prohibit a person convicted of sexual child abuse, being what you would now call a predator, should there be something in the law to prevent that person from legally
